CORNERSTONE SPORTS LEAGUE - PARTICIPANT CONDUCT POLICY

1. Any physical assault upon an official, staff member, player and/or spectator will result in automatic suspension, which may be extended for up to a lifetime as deemed proper by the Sports Coordinator and Sports Staff. This also includes any inappropriate behavior, verbal or physical abuse, towards officials, staff, players and/or spectators, on or off the field, prior to, during, or after a game.
2. Obscene and/or abusive language, threats, and other unsportsmanlike acts are grounds for player and/or coach ejection and/or suspension and/or game forfeiture. Future game suspensions will be determined by the Sports Coordinator after reviewing the circumstances of the player(s) ejection.
3. Once ejected from a game a player must not only leave the playing field/court, but the park area as well. Actions of the player(s) once ejected are still the responsibility of his/her team. Teams are also responsible for the conduct of their spectators.
4. Any player/person ejected from their game will also be suspended for at least the following weeks scheduled games. If the next weeks scheduled games are postponed for any reason, the suspension will be for the next scheduled games. The CSL Staff will determine the severity of the suspension, which could be up to a lifetime depending upon the severity of the situation. The suspended player/person will not be allowed at the ball-field, park or facility while serving their suspension.
5. For safety/liability purposes, any non-playing personnel (other than coaches and scorekeepers), which include children and pets, will not be allowed to sit within 5 yards of field of play/court and must be supervised by non-playing adults.
